

Here is a view of the Statue of Liberty that promises to become familiar to hundreds of New Yorkers this summer. It was taken from the air bus that is making regular trips from Eighty-sixth street and the North River. International.

Photograph taken a second before this airplane crashed into a grand stand at Milwaukee. Al Wilson, stunt aviator, is in the automobile going 80 miles an hour, ready to climb up the ladder to the plane. A wind gust caused the ladder to entangle the motor car's muffler and the crash followed. Underwood & Underwood.

Above — Latest picture of Irene Castle, famous dancer, and now Mrs. Treman. She is holding Afga of Lewanno, a shepherd dog puppy, her exhibit at the the Ladies Kennel Association Show at Mineola, recently. Underwood & Underwood.

At right — William Muldoon, former champion wrestler of the world, recently appointed chairman of the New State Athletic Commission by Gov. Miller. International.

Mickey is the monkey mascot of Troop K of the New York State Police at White Plains. Darling is the greyhound mascot of the troop. The two are fast friends, as the picture shows. International.

Albert D. Lasker of Chicago, photographed at the White House just a few minutes after the President announced he had accepted the chairmanship of the United States Shipping Board. Copyright, Harris & Ewing.

John T. Adams of Iowa (at right), new chairman of the Republican National Committee, and Postmaster-General Will Hays, retiring chairman, photographed at the close of the committee's recent session in Washington, at which Mr. Adams was elected unanimously. Copyright, Harris & Ewing.

Memorial to American dead of the second battle of the Marne recently established in Chateau Thierry by the Methodist Episcopal Church. As the White Horse Inn in the days of Napoleon it was a favorite stopping place of the Emperor. It is situated on the east bank of the Marne, where the Third Division of U. S. troops made its famous attack on the Germans. Gilliams Service.

Mrs. Charles G. West, Jr., of Westbury, L. I., with her daughters, Betty and Barbara, at the dog show of the Ladies Kennel Association of America at Mineola and Madford Fair Play, one of the prize winners. Underwood & Underwood.